Dear Parents and Carers,

We are excited to announce a special attendance incentive for our scholars this half term! To celebrate the efforts of families and scholars who have good attendance this half term, we're offering some fantastic prizes for the whole family. Regular attendance is vital for the wellbeing of scholars and their achievement at school and beyond, it is the law that children attend school.

This half term, scholars with good attendance will have the chance to win one of three £50 vouchers. They can choose to enter a prize draw for:

- £50 Pizza Express Voucher
- £50 Nando's Voucher
- £50 Game Voucher

For every week that a scholar has full attendance they will receive an attendance token. This serves as an entry into their selected prize draw. The more tokens they earn by attending school regularly, the better their chances of winning!

We hope these vouchers can provide an opportunity for families to enjoy a meal or activity together, courtesy of Woodfields, as a thank-you for prioritising attendance.

Thank you for your continued support in encouraging regular attendance. Let's make this half term an outstanding one!

Yours faithfully,
